Re:     *United States v. Susan Klein 18 Crim. 614 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

We write on behalf of our client, Susan Klein, to respectfully request that the Court approve travel to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where Ms. Klein would like to take her grandchildren for vacation in the next two weeks. While, ordinarily, a request for domestic travel for a defendant on supervised release may be approved by the defendant's probation officer, both Ms. Klein and the undersigned have made numerous attempts to reach her supervising officer, as well as the Probation Department's main number, and have not received a response. We reached out to the government, who advised they did not know who Ms. Klein's probation officer was. Accordingly, since we are unable to obtain a response from Probation, we respectfully request that the Court authorize the travel.

We appreciate Your Honor's consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Justine A. Harris
